Corinthian Yacht Club of Philadelphia Junior Sailing Camp Session Schedule

4 weekly sessions running from June 13- July 8

2 weekly advanced courses from July 11-July 22

(Must have completed at least 2 weeks of sailing instruction)

The Corinthian Yacht Club invites all young sailors to come and discover the joys of sailing. No experience required! You need a sense of adventure and a willingness to learn. Participants need to provide their own life jacket, sunscreen and swim suit. A variety of activities are planned, including activities in the swimming pool. The program runs from 9:00 AM-4:00 PM each day and Lunch is included. Activities include - kayaking, canoeing and stand-up paddle boards when the wind does not cooperate, as well as indoor activities.

The Junior Sailing Program at CYC continues to grow and expand in our recognition of the youth of CYC and the Philadelphia area. The objective of the program is to provide more sailing and boating education both on and off the water, to a broader age range of participants (i.e., ages 8 through 17).

The ADVANCED sessions are designed to introduce and refine racing concepts and skills in 420s and Optimis for returning junior sailors and campers with sailing experience.

Please review the enclosed documents and pass them along to friends and family members.
